Additional Instructions:

For these license types, you will see a Verify Eligibility button that must be used before the purchase can be made. This is a compliance check with the Department of Revenue to confirm the customer is eligible. If the verification fails, the customer will be unable to purchase.

Customers may need to provide additional information (business name, sellers permit number, etc.) to qualify depending on the requested license. The customer will need to provide this information to you, or they can make the selections themselves on the customer-facing monitor.

They may also be asked to read and attest to certain information regarding the usage or operation of the license. They will be asked to check a box to confirm they understand the requirements of the license.
